This undertaking, which is looked upon by the originators as the beginning of a big boom for the horticultural resources of Arizona, will be watched with much interest by the fruitgrowers and others in this section.

J. M. Brooks will leave about the 20th for Sacramento and will not return before the session of Legislature is over. Mrs. Brooks and children go with him.

A Remarkable Man.
[Ventura Democrat.]

Judge M. Watson of this county is 70 years old and never had a fight, never saw other men fight, never had a death in his family and never saw a human being die.

Justice Ranney had a busy day yesterday. M. Polymath was found guilty of petty larceny and will receive sentence on Thursday; John Connors got 10 days for disturbing the peace; John Sayles a similar dose and 18 fags received from 5 to 30 days apiece.

Justice Austin set the examination of James Ryan, for burglary, for Dec. 20.

Well, we will just gently whisper, the people want the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe road for a change."

Well, What did They Make by it?
(Ventura Free Press.)

A reception was tendered Lieutenant-Governor Waterman at the Nadean House, Los Angeles, the other evening. The managers seemed to have two objects in view: To compliment Mr. Waterman, and to snub THE TIMES.

Progress.—Established Jan. 31, 1886. Present editor, J. H. Stephens. Published every Friday. Politics (a primary consideration). Republican Size, 28x42. Subscription, $5. Principal range of circulation, San Luis Obispo county, southern Monterey and northern Santa Barbara. Devoted to the development of the above-described region. Approximate population of local district served, 30,000. Estimated population of town, 5,000; of county, 30,000. Leading resources, farming. The editor says: "The Tribune, while always strongly and decidedly the advocate of Republican principles, has never failed to fairly and fairly chronicle every event which has marked the rise and progress of the county, and, in spite of opposition, at times strong and threatening, we have always maintained a leading position. To its character as a just, fair and trustworthy journal is due its constant and growing popularity, not only with its party friends, but with our population generally, and its constantly-increasing circulation."

A sixty-dollar new "Domestic" sewing-machine will be given away Monday evening at 7:30 p.m. Now is the time to get your sewing-machine. The winner will be selected by lot. Lots in all parts of the city at reasonable prices.

I desire to call particular attention to the fine building lots that I have for sale on the hill, near the city.

Parties desiring fine residence property will do well to examine the lots that I have for sale in the El Cid tract, only one narrow block from Main st. car line; covered with orange trees in full bearing; good soil, good streets, and surrounded by fine residences. This property is near the city, and has an electric railroad on one side and a horsecar line on the other.

WILL EXCHANGE.

Several fine pieces of property in different parts of the State for city property.

Houses rented, rents collected and all business connected with real estate promptly attended to.

I will say to my Eastern friends and all others who contemplate settling here or making investments in this country that I have a large line of improved and unimproved property on the coast, and I will certainly be to your interest to call and examine the same.

Let me give you a profitable investment in giving information and showing property to intending purchasers.

Houses having large or small sums of money to loan on good security will not be given of a call. Out of the city, I am recommended and made by me I challenge any mortgagee to say that a suit has been commenced against me for non-payment of interest on this date and unpaid.

He Wanted to Discuss the Tariff.

(By Gov. Curtin.)

When I was in Washington the first winter of my congressional life, I found myself sitting alongside a man I didn't know. I turned to him and said:

"What's your name?"

"My name's Allen, and I'm from Mississippi. I know you are well enough; you are Gov. Curtin, of Pennsylvania, the great tariff State."

"Well," said Mr. Curtin, "Allen, as we are going to sit together, I guess we might as well be friends," and said the speaker, "we are friends to this day."

"Speaking of the tariff, though," said

Mr. Allen, "down in Mississippi, Governor, we don't know anything about it, and the more I think about it and the more I read about it, the less I know about it and the more confused I get, and I always feel like kicking a man who talks to me about it. It reminds me of a man down in our section who was arrested for assault and battery and who was relating his story to the Judge.

"A traveler on horseback rode up one evening to a man's home, and for supper, horsefeed and lodging, all of which were cheerfully accorded, with true Southern hospitality. After supper the stranger insulted the man's wife, and Judge, said he, "I stood that because he was my guest. Then he wanted to kiss my daughter, and chased her out into the kitchen and then back again, and Judge, I stood that because he was under my roof and had eaten salt at my table.

"Then he ran out into the yard and heaved a stone through the window, and, Judge, I stood that because I was determined to be hospitable. But I went out to the fellow and I says to him: Now, see here, old fellow, I've given you supper and feed your horse, and in return you've insulted my wife, chased my daughter, and heaved a stone through my window, but I'll overlook all that because you are my guest, if you'll only come into the house, behave yourself and go to bed. Then I'll give you a good breakfast and send you off rejoicing.

"And, by thunder, Judge, what do you think he did then? Why, as sure as you're alive he put his finger into my buttonhole and wanted to discuss the tariff with me, and then,—a him, I hit him."

The Topolobampo.

(By Pao Tien, Dec. 19.)

A few days ago the first installment of colonists for the Topolobampo

Colonization passed down the Atchisson, Topolobampo and Santa Fe on their way to their future home. The colonists, under the direction of Albert K. Owen, are drawn from all sections of the country—Texas and California being well represented. They expect to get beyond the necessity of earning money, and do not expect to labor but a few hours each day. All religions will be tolerated, but none will be practiced. The colonists will express their views on all subjects through the Daily Wave, the organ of the colony, which is to be established in Mexico. Rev. William F.

Eaton, one of the foremost men connected with the scheme, says the colony will be a peaceful
